

Commissioner Billie L. Dean

Commissioner Billie Dean has served as a City Commissioner since 1994. In his private life, Commissioner Dean is a retired educator.

Commissioner Dean has lived in the Apopka community for more than 35 years. He is married to Isadora Moye Dean and has five children and three grandchildren.

Commissioner Dean was born and reared in Clermont, Florida. He attended elementary school in Clermont and also attended Jones High School in Orlando, and received his high school diploma from Eustis Vocational High School.

He is a graduate of Florida A & M University, where he received a Bachelor's degree in Agriculture as well as a Master's degree in Agriculture and Administration and Supervision.

Commissioner Dean is a veteran of the U.S. Army and served in the Korean War, during which he received a Bronze Star for valor.

Commissioner Dean's record of community involvement and service also includes:

- Member, Florida League of Cities
- Member, Lake Apopka Natural Gas Board
- Member and trustee, Mt. Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church, Orlando
- 100 Black Men of Orlando, Inc.
- CARET Representative for Land Grant Colleges and Universities on behalf of Florida A&M University.
- The Black Caucus

Contact information: You may reach Commissioner Billie Dean at 407 703-1703, or you may email him at: bdean@apopka.net.